

Interrogation: Bucky

Detective: Where were you the night Steve died?

Bucky: I was at the Circa hotel with everyone except Tony and Steve.

Detective: Why were you guys in Vegas?

Bucky: Steve was getting married. He took a couple friends and his team with him to celebrate.

Detective: Why were you at the Circa?

Bucky: It was part of the agenda to meet there. It was sent by Steve's assistance. I just followed the plan after getting ready.

Detective: What was Steve to you?

Bucky: He was my boss. The best boss. Loved that guy.

Detective: On that day, how was Tony acting?

Bucky: F*ck that guy. He betrayed his best-friend! Can't believe it.

Detective: That wasn't the question.

Bucky: Sorry, I am so emotional right now. Umm, the morning was normal. We had our team breakfast and everyone was happy. But, after Tony took his medications, things took a turn. Tony and Steve had to walk out and I could hear shouting. It got loud. Steve kept asking Tony to calm down. He asked if "something" was back again. Then, I cannot recall the rest.

Detective: Would you say things got violent?

Bucky: Verbally, yes! But, when I saw Steve afterwards, he had no physical damages. I asked him if everything was okay and he just said that it was a personal issue.

Detective: Is Tony someone who would hurt someone?

Bucky: I do go shooting with him at the range and hunting in the woods. He had such a great shot. He never believed in wasting bullets so, one shot was all he needed. I also know he took Martial Arts. He was very adamant about using it for self-defense. He definitely had potential to kill someone, but his heart was against it. Then again, something seemed off about him after breakfast.

Detective: Thank you...
