

Dear Detective,

My name is Peggy. I was supposed to marry Steve. When I heard the news that he died, my heart was broken. Later, I found out through a friend that there are rumors that Tony killed him. As much as my heart wants to mourn, I cannot rest until I find out who did it and justice is delivered. It just does not make sense that Tony killed Steve. I know both very well. They were best friends. They argued a lot, but never got physical. It did get close a few times.

Tony is a good guy. I trust him with my life and Steve's life. Whenever those two went on their adventures, Tony would always tell me that he would bring Steve home safely. He said that to me before their last trip. This just does not make sense.

I was able to log into Steve's computer at home and look at some e-mails. I will send everything that may help. I just want Steve to get his justice. If Tony is innocent and goes to jail, then Steve would not be honored. If Tony is guilty, please put that man in jail.

I am reaching out to you because I know that there are some corrupt cops out there, but I heard you were one of the good ones left. Goodluck! Please confirm if Tony is innocent or guilty before the city throws him in there without giving him a chance. I know you can find evidence. Best of luck.

Peggy
